

Athlete of the Week

November 1, 2009

Tevin Carr of Statesville High School

Tevin Carr is a senior and three-sport athlete at Statesville High School. He plays football, basketball and runs track & field. In his current football season he has had impressive highlights including 2 defensive touchdowns, 40 tackles and 3 interceptions. Earlier this season in a tough loss, he returned a blocked field goal for a 90 yard touchdown, and interception for a 102 yard touchdown and 9 tackles. Tevin has been named All-County and All-Conference athlete for his achievements.

Tevin not only plays sports year round for the greyhounds, he is an honors/AP student as well. Keeping up with the demands of school and sport has taught Tevin valuable lessons such as preparing for opportunity, becoming a leader, hard work and ethics. In addition to understanding life lessons, Tevin also has a great sense of direction. He plans on attending a university to major in computer science, mechanical drafting or business. In order to make his dreams become reality, he constantly challenges himself to "Being the influence and not be influenced."
